

Sinclair Broadcast Group's blatant political involvement in the Bush campaign is unacceptable in a democratic society. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. By presenting information that is opinion based and nonfactual and aimed at discrediting individuals they are doing a criminal disservice to our country.

Large companies should not control the airwaves. I feel it is time to break up these large media groups into smaller individual media sources. The people should once again be given factual statements, furthermore they should be delivered in context so they are not intentionally misinterpreted. Opinions should be clearly labeled.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. The license renewal process needs to involve more scrutiny of a stations public service. If they are not being factual and fair their license should be suspended.

Thank you.
Alethea Hendricks